

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
oag.dc.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Thursday, April 21, 2016

Contact: Rob Marus, Communications Director: (202) 724-5646; robert.marus@dc.gov
Andrew Phifer, Public Affairs Specialist: (202) 741-7652; andrew.phifer@dc.gov

At Shiloh Baptist Church Event, Attorney General Racine to Highlight Ways to Fight Human Trafficking among Minors
AG Will Emphasize Trafficking Warning Signs & How to Report Suspected Abuse

WHO/WHAT: Attorney General Karl A. Racine will join several speakers involved in the fight to end human trafficking as part of a program hosted by Shiloh Baptist Church in Shaw tomorrow evening. Titled “Missing and Exploited Children for Sex Trafficking: A Time for Action and Advocacy,” the event will raise awareness about the warning signs of this modern-day form of slavery and educate youth and adults on how to identify and report potential signs of human trafficking among children. Attendees will hear from survivors, law enforcement and legal experts, musicians and more.

WHEN: 6:00 pm – 7:30 p.m.
Friday, April 22, 2016

WHERE: Shiloh Baptist Church
1500 9th Street NW

###