

District Government Services: Responding to Hate

Government Offices, Agencies, and Departments in D.C.	Website	Phone Number/Email	Description of Resources Offered
If you are in immediate danger CALL 911
Other Immediate Services
D.C. Victim Hotline	dcvictim.org	Call or text 1-844-4HELPDC ( 1-844-443-5732 ) or chat at dcvictim.org (Available 24/7).	The Hotline victim assistance staff provide basic crisis-intervention support and work to seamlessly connect victims of crime to free resources and to help them navigate the physical, financial, legal, and emotional repercussions of crime.
Your Local MPD District Station	mpdc.dc.gov  Police Service Area Details Map	202-698-0555	1D- 101 M Street SW
		202-715-7300	2D-3320 Idaho Ave NW
		202-673-6815	3D-1620 V Street, NW
		202-714-7400	4D- 6001 Georgia Ave NW
		202-698-0150	5D-1805 Bladensburg Road, NE
		202-698-0880	6D-5002 Hayes Street, NE
		202-698-1500	7D-2455 Alabama Ave, SE
The Metropolitan Police Department (MPD)
MPD Asian Liaison Unit (ALU)	mpdc.dc.gov/node/138712	202-487-3901 slu.adminbox@dc.gov	ALU is a team of dedicated officers that focuses on the public safety needs of the Asian community. They facilitate translation services to patrol officers, various investigative units, and the community. The members of the ALU staff -- sworn and civilian -- speak Korean, Vietnamese, Chinese Cantonese, and Thai. They conduct public education campaigns on issues related to hate crimes and public safety. They also perform community outreach and patrol functions to foster positive relationships, build trust, respond to all citizen complaints and obtain information that leads to the closure of hate crimes and violent crimes in the community.
MPD Latino Liaison Unit (LLU)	mpdc.dc.gov/node/140502	202-498-9829 slu.adminbox@dc.gov	LLU is a team of dedicated officers that focuses on the public safety needs of the Latino community. They conduct public education campaigns on issues related to hate crimes and public safety. They also perform community outreach and patrol functions to foster positive relationships, build trust, respond to all citizen complaints and obtain information that leads to the closure of hate crimes and violent crimes in the community.

Government Offices, Agencies, and Departments in D.C.	Website	Phone Number/Email	Description of Resources Offered
MPD Deaf & Hard of Hearing Unit TTY (DHHLU)	mpdc.dc.gov/node/139002	202-553-7874 slu.adminbox@dc.gov	DHHLU is a team of dedicated officers that focuses on the public safety needs of the deaf & hard of hearing community. They provide sign language interpretation to aid deaf and hard of hearing citizens in their interaction with police officers and to assist detectives in their investigations. They also conduct public education campaigns on issues related to hate crimes and public safety. They perform community outreach and patrol functions to foster positive relationships, build trust, respond to all citizen complaints and obtain information that leads to the closure of hate crimes and violent crimes in the community.
MPD LGBT Liaison Unit (LGBTLU)	https://mpdc.dc.gov/node/139172	202-506-0714 slu.adminbox@dc.gov	LGBTLU is a team of dedicated officers that focuses on the public safety needs of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and their allied communities. They conduct public education campaigns on issues related to hate crimes and public safety. They also perform community outreach and patrol functions to foster positive relationships, build trust, respond to all citizen complaints and obtain information that leads to the closure of hate crimes and violent crime in the community.
MPD's D.C. Hate Crimes Voicemail and Email		202-727-0500 hate.crimes@dc.gov	This is not a live-monitored line and should NOT be used in place of 911 to report a crime or a crime in progress. This email and voicemail allows individuals to provide information regarding hate crimes anonymously. Please note that MPD may not be able to investigate the information as a crime if there is not enough information, so contact information for any follow up questions may be helpful.
Crime Victim Compensation Program	mpdc.dc.gov	202-698-1261	MPD is to treat all victims/witnesses in a respectful, responsive, and compassionate manner that reflects the Department's recognition of the trauma of victimization. MPD's interaction with the victim/witness of a crime shall not contribute additional harm. Toward that end, MPD members assist crime victims by providing them with information about their rights and available programs and services that can help them cope with physical injury, emotional trauma, and economic loss.

Government Offices, Agencies, and Departments in D.C.	Website	Phone Number/Email	Description of Resources Offered
Mayor's Office of Community Affairs
Mayor's Office of LGBTQ Affairs (MOLGBTQ)	communityaffairs.dc.gov/molgbtqa	202-727-9493 lgbtq@dc.gov	MOLGBTQ provides a variety of services to the District's LGBTQ community. This includes hosting a monthly hate crimes call—Violence Prevention and Response Team (VPART)—between area government officials and community advocates. VPART coordinates a response to incidents and crimes of bias against the LGBTQ community as well as email alerts for violent crimes against the community. For individual hate crime assistance, contact the D.C. Victim Hotline or VPART's partner agencies. VPART's non-governmental partners include: Casa Ruby, Rainbow Response, Anti-Violence Project, D.C. Center, Defend Yourself, HIPS, Wanda Alston Foundation, etc.,
Mayor's Office on Asian and Pacific Islander Affairs (MOAPIA)	communityaffairs.dc.gov/moapia	202-727-3120 oapia@dc.gov	MOAPIA serves Asian and Pacific Islander residents, especially low-income and immigrant communities. Staff provide services and referrals in Chinese, Vietnamese, and Korean in addition to English and can connect victims of crime to support services, legal assistance, and other resources.
Mayor's Office of Religious Affairs (MORA)	communityaffairs.dc.gov/mora	202-442-8150 Religious.affairs@dc.gov	MORA works with the faith community to determine and address their concerns, needs, and programs by serving as the liaison and coordinating between the government and the faith community. MORA cultivates policies that engage community and faith-based organizations in the creation of citywide programs and initiatives across multiple disciplines.
Mayor's Office on African American Affairs (MOAAA)	communityaffairs.dc.gov/moaaa	202-442-8150 moaaa@dc.gov	MOAAA works across District agencies to bridge the equity gap, connect residents to economic opportunities, and convene community organizations that advance the health, wealth, and education outcomes of African Americans in our city. MOAAA expands the capacity of community organizations focused on the African American community through MOAAA's Community Grant, advises the District government on policies and programs impacting African American communities; and celebrates African American history and culture through events and community forums.
Mayor's Office on Women's Policy and Initiatives (MOWPI)	communityaffairs.dc.gov/mowpi	202-442-8150 women@dc.gov	MOWPI works to enhance the quality of life for all D.C. women and their families. MOWPI is a liaison between the public and private sector and the Executive Office of the Mayor. The office tracks local women's issues including domestic violence and gender pay inequity, and advocates for programming and policies that elevate women. Programs include; wage negotiation training workshops, women’s policy bootcamps, women’s leadership, life skills and career services.

Government Offices, Agencies, and Departments in D.C.	Website	Phone Number/Email	Description of Resources Offered
Other District Agencies
D.C Office of the Attorney General (OAG), Civil Rights Section	OAG Civil Rights Intake Form	202-727-3400 OAGCivilRights@dc.gov PeopleVHate@dc.gov	OAG’s Civil Rights Section (CRS) protects civil rights of all District residents by enforcing District law in cases involving a pattern or practice of unlawful discrimination. Our mission is to investigate and challenge discriminatory policies and practices that have a significant impact on District residents, while ensuring equal treatment and meaningful opportunities for all individuals in the District.  OAG also works to counter hate by focusing on awareness, prevention, and support through its PeopleVHate: Standing Up for Humanity initiative. For more information or to get involved, please email PeopleVHate email.
D.C. Office of Human Rights (OHR)	ohr.dc.gov	202-727-4559	Investigates and resolves complaints of unlawful discrimination in employment (private companies and government), housing, public accommodations, and educational institutions; and provides information on human rights and language access laws and policies to the community.
Federal Government
US Attorney’s Office D.C.	www.justice.gov/usa-o-dc	202-252-7566 202-514-7130	Crisis intervention, court accompaniment, special services for vulnerable victims, information on court proceedings and cases status, help with victim impact statements, language interpretation services, referrals to support services.
FBI Washington D.C. Civil Rights Squad		202-278-2000	Investigates federal hate and bias crimes violations