

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
Civil Division

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,

Plaintiff,

v.

DOORDASH, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No.: 2019 CA 007626 B
Judge Shana Frost Matini

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF CONSENT JUDGMENT AND ORDER

Plaintiff District of Columbia (the “District”), by and through its Attorney General (“OAG”), jointly with Defendant DoorDash, Inc. (“DoorDash”) (collectively, the “Parties”), respectfully move this Court to enter the attached Consent Judgment and Order and state as follows:

1. The Attorney General commenced this action in the name of the District pursuant to the Attorney General’s enforcement authority under the District of Columbia Consumer Protection Procedures Act (“CPPA”), D.C. Code § 28-3909. In its Complaint, the District alleges that, from approximately 2017 to 2019, DoorDash engaged in unlawful trade practices in violation of the CPPA. See D.C. Code § 28-3904(e), (f), and (f-1).

2. DoorDash denies that it has violated the CPPA or any other law, engaged in any deceptive practices, or committed any wrongdoing.

3. The parties have agreed on terms to resolve this action as set out in the attached Consent Judgment and Order. The Consent Judgment and Order provides for injunctive and monetary relief. By signing the Consent Judgment and Order, the Parties have agreed to its entry by the Court.

Wherefore, the Parties respectfully move the Court to approve and enter the attached Consent Judgment and Order as the final judgment in this action.

Date: November 24, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

For the District of Columbia:
