WHAT IS THE TIP LINE?

Children deserve to be financially supported by both of their parents. Currently, the Child Support Services Division (CSSD) has many cases in which the non-custodial parent is not providing medical or financial support to their children.

In an effort to improve the lives of children in the District of Columbia, CSSD has established an anonymous tip line to locate non-custodial parents.

HOW DOES THE TIP LINE WORK?

- The Tip Line is a web-based application that can be accessed through the internet from any computer.
- You can access the tip line at the following website:

[http://tipline.oag.dc.gov/
introduction.aspx](http://tipline.oag.dc.gov/introduction.aspx)

You may also access the tip line on the CSSD homepage at :

www.cssd.dc.gov

To provide information on the website, you must know the first and last name of either the non-custodial parent or one of the children in the case.

The information you provide, will be verified.

Once the information is verified, CSSD can use the information in several ways:

- to file a case in court
- to serve a non-custodial parent with court documents
- to enforce a court order
