Defendant, at his discretion, may accelerate his payments, and the entire amount may be paid in full at any time; it is,

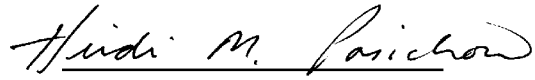

FURTHER ORDERED that, in accordance with this Court's separate Order of Condemnation, all funds held in defendant's Wells Fargo account ending in 4365 shall be immediately released to the District of Columbia (payable to the D.C. Treasurer) and credited against the full amount of the judgment; it is,

FURTHER ORDERED that defendant shall be permanently enjoined from obtaining or attempting to obtain money or property from E.T., either directly or indirectly through any third parties, and shall not communicate with E.T. concerning any financial matters; it is,

FURTHER ORDERED that the Preliminary Injunction of March 12, 2021 issued by Judge Jose Lopez is hereby vacated; and it is,

¹ To protect the identity and privacy of the victim in this case, the District has referred to him in the pleadings only by his initials, E.T. Under Super. Ct. Civ. R. 5-III, the Court granted the District's Motion for Leave to File Under Seal a Praeceptum Identifying Victim.
