

Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia Presents the 2024

Do the Write Thing Challenge

DtWT is a national writing contest that gives middle school students the chance to speak out about:

1. The causes of youth violence
2. How violence has affected them
3. Solutions to reduce youth violence

- Now accepting submissions online through April 12, 2024 by 11:59 PM
- Open to all middle school students, grades 6 - 8
- For more information, contest rules, and to enter visit oag.dc.gov/dtwt

DO
THE
WRITE
THING
HELP STOP THE VIOLENCE

